FPPC schedules March 3 seminar for media On campaign and other disclosure filings

The Fair Political Practices Commission is planning an educational seminar for members of the media who follow candidates and campaigns. The seminar is scheduled for Friday, March 3, 2006, from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the eighth-floor hearing room at FPPC headquarters, 428 J St. (Fifth and J Streets) in Sacramento.

FPPC staff members will provide a general overview and tips on understanding and interpreting public campaign, lobbying and economic disclosure filings. Campaign reporting requirements and filing deadlines will be discussed, including reports required of candidates, contributors and ballot measure campaigns. FPPC staff will also discuss statement of economic interests filings required of thousands of state and local public officials, the campaign auditing process, and reports of payments made at the behest of candidates.

To reserve a space, please email Chris Espinosa at the FPPC at cespinosa@fppc.ca.gov, or call him at (916) 322-7776. Also let us know if there is a disclosure subject you would like to see included.
